

the National Trust for Scotland
a place for everyone

aberdeenshireheritagefairs celebrating our culture, together

Meldrum Heritage Fair at Haddo House

Sunday 15th November 2009

10 am - 4pm

FREE ENTRY

HaddoHouse

A celebration of local culture and traditions including displays and performances by schoolchildren, exhibitions and performances by local artists and community groups
Guided tours of Haddo House conducted by local schoolchildren throughout the day

For more information contact
Meldrum Library 01651 871307
Aberdeenshire Heritage Fairs on 0871 429738

Meldrum Heritage Fair at Haddo House

Sunday 15th Nov 2009

10am – 4pm

Enjoy:

- 10:30 - Scottish music
- 11:00 – Storytelling/craft for children (Susan McKay)
- 11:30 – Tarves Primary – Scottish Country Dancing
- 11:40 Storytelling for adults (Deborah Leslie)
- 12:00 – Storytelling/craft for children (Susan McKay)
- 12:30 - Tarves Primary – Scottish Country Dancing
- 12.45 – “Meet your Ancestors” talk and songs (Don Carney)
- 12:50 – Scottish Music
- 1:30 – “Our Scotland” (extracts) Rhona Mitchell Drama
- 2:00 Storytelling for adults (Deborah Leslie)
- 2:30 – Choral music
- 2.30 – “Meet your Ancestors” talk and songs (Don Carney)
- 3:00 – “Our Scotland” (more extracts) Rhona Mitchell Drama

Explore:

- Family history and local heritage material
 - Displays by local schoolchildren
- Corn dolly and straw workshop (Elaine Lindsay)
- Changing local landscapes at the interactive Macaulay Virtual Landscape Theatre

Guided tours of Haddo House by Rothienorman and Methlick schoolchildren

- Morning tours start at 10.30
 - Afternoon tours start at 1:30
- Bookings for tours - at NTS stand in hall
Tours depart every 10 minutes

Relax:

Light refreshments available at café in Peatyards

Events in blue take place in main hall

Events in green take place in Peatyards