

aberdeenshireheritagefairs celebrating our culture, together

Stonehaven Heritage Fair

Saturday 28th November 2009

11 am - 4pm

Stonehaven Community Centre

and

Tolbooth Museum & Library

FREE EVENT

Explore and celebrate your local heritage through music, poetry, storytelling, family history,
displays by community and school groups
and much much more

For more information contact
Aberdeenshire Heritage Fair Co-ordinator on 01224 665527

STONEHAVEN COMMUNITY CENTRE

Enjoy

Live performances from

Stonehaven Folk Club - including Burns Quoir
Stonehaven Folk Festival's Acoustic Stage
Scottish Culture & Traditions
Maggie Fraser (Scottish Storytellers Centre)
Grassic Gibbon Songwriters
Carol Anderson and Geordie Murison

Film screenings of

'William Burnes, the Father of the Bard',
'The Honours Three' - Stonehaven Ury Players

Explore

Stonehaven Heritage Society
R.W. Thomson Memorial Fellowship
Father of the Bard Project
Maritime Rescue Institute
Registrars and NE Family History Society
Andy Hall Photography
Local community Art and Writing

and much much more

Relax

Light refreshments available in Community Centre Café

Other venues to visit

TOLBOOTH MUSEUM

(open 1pm - 4pm)

Woodview Heritage Project
Stonehaven Fireballs Association

Live Performances

STONEHAVEN LIBRARY

(open 10am - 4pm)

Storytelling for children (Susan McKay)
Trace your roots – local expert and computer access
School exhibits

Live Performances