

21/10/11

Strathbogie Community Council

Members of the above noted recent correspondence on a review of polling places. While the closing date for those comments is past, they did express the view that at Drumblade School, the possibility of not closing the whole school on polling days should be actively explored.

Pat Scott, secretary.

Strathbogie Community Council