

- 1 The Old Salmon Fish House was built on the banks of the River Ugie in 1585 and is the oldest working fish house in Scotland.
- 2 In 1593 the construction of Peterhead's first harbour established a base for trade and safety. Today it is the UK's premier white fish port and a major oil service facility.

