

St John's Kirk – An ancient site with a ruined church dating from 1513. Original church was founded following the 1004 defeat of the Danes at Bloodymires farm. The skulls of the defeated Norsemen were displayed in an opening in the wall east of the pulpit. The graveyard contains interesting 16th and 17th century monuments.