25% or Less

C3

What community benefits arise from your proposals? What would the nature of these be, and how would they be delivered?

Our objective is to make all our properties affordable. Developments that are urban (or village like) in style tend to have a solid mix of different properties that allow the developer to provide a full range of properties across all price ranges. Should we require to provide housing through housing associations or similar, we would look to do this within the context of the existing local plan policies.

This project is also about sustainable urbanism and as such, issues dealing with mixed use, mixed tenure, walkable neighbourhoods, usable green spaces are a major principle. In this context the plan is Cairntack, Belhelvie will be an organic community which is able to survive and thrive for a long period of time, whilst enhancing and complementing the existing areas of Belhelvie.

By providing mixed use development, we also offer people the opportunity to live and work in their community and reduce their reliance on the motor vehicle. There will no doubt be many other benefits which will acruce to the community and many of these will be highlighted and identified through the public engagement process.

Community benefits may be material, such as community facilities, or intangible, such as affordable housing or the ability to live locally. Include elements which you anticipate may be required as developer contributions from the development (although specifics will have to be negotiated with the Council on the basis of the development proposed)
