Offers:

Any persons who wish to submit an offer to lease the property should note their interest with the Estates Manager, Aberdeenshire Council, Woodhill House, Westburn Road, Aberdeen. AB16 5GB, either in writing or by telephoning Aberdeen (01224 664255).

All persons who have requested that their interest in the property be noted will be sent details of the closing date once it has been set together with details of the Council's tender procedures that must be strictly adhered to. Offers to lease must state the amount of money in respect of rent and must be formal probative offers in accordance with Scottish Legal Practice and must be submitted in the official tender envelope provided. Offers submitted otherwise than in accordance with this requirement will not be considered.

The Council is not bound to accept the highest or indeed any offer.

Conditions of Lease

Aberdeenshire Council is seeking to lease the property on an annual basis with the lease reviewed year to year thereafter.

The tenant will accept the premises as being in good condition and repair as at the date of entry and will be responsible for and will carry out all internal and external repairs and maintenance necessary to put, keep and maintain the premises in good condition and repair. The Council will have the right to inspect the premises and have any repairs deemed necessary carried out and may recover the cost thereof from the tenants on demand.

The tenant will require to satisfy himself that the subjects are suitable for the purpose intended. The tenant will at his own expense also obtain any additional planning permissions or other consents necessary for use of the property throughout the lease term that may be or become required.

The tenant shall be responsible for their own and the Council's reasonable legal and other expenses incurred as a consequence of the granting of the lease.

Misrepresentation Act 1967 and Property Misdescriptions Act 1991:

These particulars are prepared in good faith and are intended as a convenient guide to supplement an inspection or survey. Their accuracy is not guaranteed. They contain statements of opinion and in some instances we have relied on information provided by others. You and your representatives should verify the particulars on a visit to the property. The particulars do not obviate the need for a full survey and you are strongly advised to obtain an independent survey of the property by an appropriately qualified person prior to submitting an offer. Accordingly, there shall be no liability as a result of any error or omission in the particulars or any other information given.

Nothing in these particulars shall be deemed to be a statement that the property is in good structural condition or otherwise nor that any services, appliances, equipment or facilities are in good working order. You are strongly advised to verify their condition prior to submitting an offer to lease or purchase.

Any plans, areas, measurements of distances referred to are given as a guide only and are not guaranteed. If such details are fundamental to a lease, prospective tenants must rely on their own enquiries.

Where any reference is made to planning permissions or potential uses, such information is given in good faith and prospective purchasers should satisfy themselves on such matters prior to submitting an offer.

NOTICE TO PROSPECTIVE TENDERERS

May I take this opportunity of bringing to your attention the following important notes regarding the submission of tenders.

1. It is the responsibility of each tenderer to ensure that the tender is received at the office of the Head of Legal and Governance, Woodhill House, Westburn Road, Aberdeen, AB16 5GB before 10.30 a.m. on the closing date detailed in the attached Tender Document.

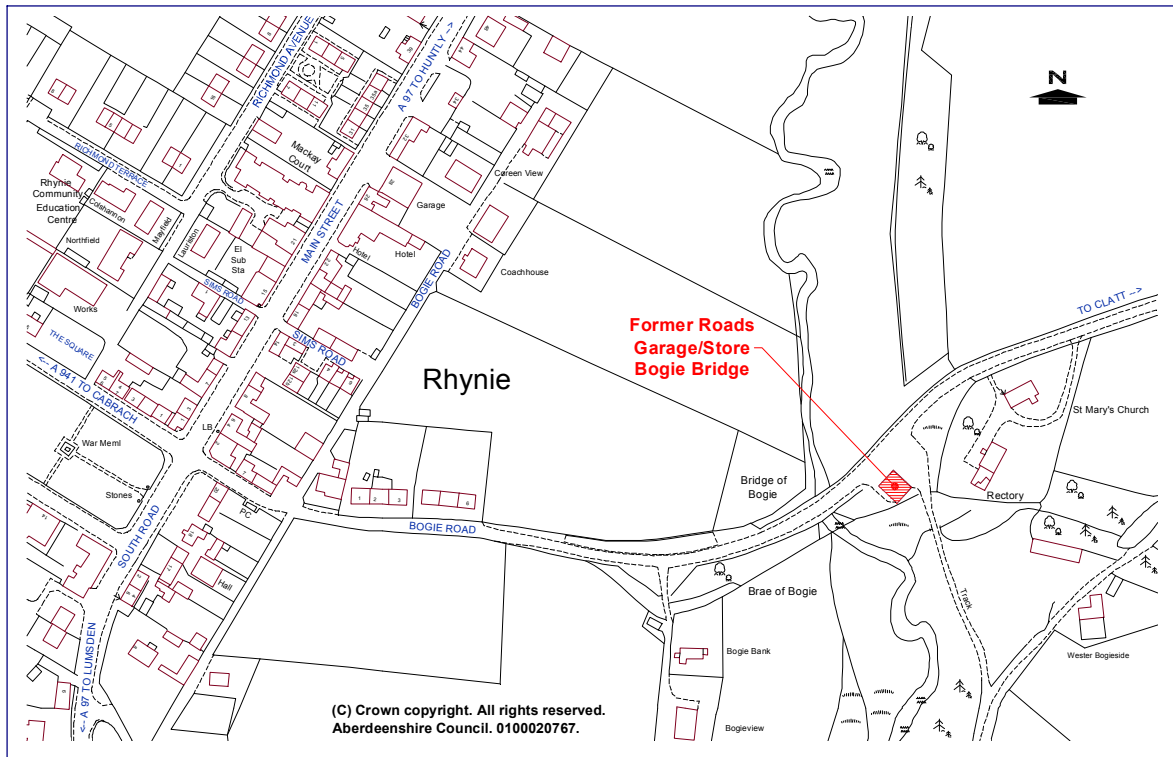

LATE AND FAXED TENDERS WILL NOT BE ACCEPTED

2. All tenders received after the closing time will not be considered and will be opened, identified and returned to the sender immediately.
3. The use of outside agents as Couriers, British Rail, Red Star, Royal Mail, DX Exchange or other similar organisations, may not necessarily guarantee delivery by the required date and time especially during inclement weather. It is the responsibility of the tenderer to ensure that the tender is timeously received at the above mentioned office.
4. The orange tender envelope which has been supplied with this Tender for use by prospective tenderers has been specifically selected so that it is clearly identifiable when received in Woodhill House with other mail. Should you enclose it within a standard envelope or send it by courier services within their special envelopes, the word "TENDER" together with the closing date must be prominently displayed with the address on these envelopes for the ease of identification on arrival at Woodhill House.

If your tender documents are larger than the envelope provided please tape the orange envelope to the outside of your package to ensure the tender information is clearly visible.

All tenders which are delivered by hand, or sent by courier service should be delivered to the Main Reception Desk, Ground Floor, Woodhill House, Westburn Road, Aberdeen, AB16 5GB where a receipt will be given detailing the date and time of receipt of the tender.
