Places of Interest...

Oldmeldrum: Tarves Heritage Project and 16th century Tolquhon Castle and Gallery.

Fyvie: The five towers of Fyvie Castle.

Turriff: The annual Turriff Show is one of Europe's major agricultural events. Nearby Delgatie Castle dates back to the 11th century.

Macduff: Fishing port at the mouth of the River Deveron. Spectacular cliff scenery and sunsets. The Marine Aquarium is home to the unique open-air centre tank.

Banff: Historic coastal town with many finely restored 18th century buildings. Duff House: Banff's biggest tourist attraction.

Portsoy: Finely restored conservation village built around 17th century harbour. Age-old craft traditions are continued at the Marble Workshop.

Buckie: Busy harbour with a large fishing fleet, fish market and boatbuilding yards. Nearby are historic Tynet Chapel and St. Gregory's Church. Dolphin cruises available.

Elgin: The capital and commercial centre of Moray. A former Pictish province, steeped in history and home to Scotland's only Biblical Garden.
