Places of Interest...

Stonehaven: Attractive seaside resort. Picturesque and sheltered harbour. Dunnottar Castle on the clifftops to the south. Close by, the largest seabird colony in mainland Britain can be found at Fowlsheugh RSPB Seabird Colony.

Inverbervie: The Royal Burgh of Inverbervie is well situated for touring the east coast fishing villages and the Howe o' the Mearns.

Johnshaven: Charming fishing village on the picturesque Mearns coastline. Rich in maritime heritage and home to a nationally acclaimed fish festival.

St Cyrus: Two miles of beautiful unspoilt beach and a Nature Reserve run by Scottish Natural Heritage, a must for wildlife and nature lovers.

Montrose: Montrose Basin Wildlife Centre, the beautiful 18th century House of Dun, and the spectacular, award-winning and unspoiled sands at St Cyrus and Lunan Bay.
