Places of Interest...

Inverurie: Thainstone Mart, one of Europe's largest livestock markets. Thriving town set in the midst of beautiful farm land.

Huntly: 'Cock o' the North'. Huntly Castle, the Brander Museum and the Nordic Ski Centre can be found in the town. Nearby are Glendronach Distillery, Leith Hall and the medieval church of St. Mary's at Auchindoir.

Keith: On the Malt Whisky Trail, with Strathisla Distillery open to visitors and the new Scottish Tartans Museum. Keith is also an important agricultural centre.

Fochabers: Baxters Visitor Centre and Fochabers Folk Museum.

Elgin: The capital and commercial centre of Moray. A former Pictish province, steeped in history and home to Scotland's only Biblical Garden.

Inverness: The capital of the Highlands.
