

Mini Netball Training

- Where? Monquhitter School, Cuminestown, Turriff
- When? Monday the 21st and 28th of September 2009
- Time? 5.00pm – 8.30pm (both sessions)
- How Much does it cost? Free through Active Schools

Who can come? Anyone over 16 years of age who can make a small commitment to help Primary children get more active either before, during or after school.

MINI NETBALL is a modified version of the adult game focusing on greater participation, appropriate skill development and fun. It is designed for and enjoyed by primary 4-7 girls and boys. The course is aimed at coaches, teachers and parents who will be working with primary school children and introduces the basic ball and movement skills of netball. The course provides a starting point for the coaching / teaching of netball through the mini game.

To register please complete the attached application form and return by email or post by Monday the 14th of September. Confirmation slips will be sent on receipt of your application form.
