Knox and Foley triumphant at 31st Bank of Scotland Badminton Bonanza

Prestwick's Colin Knox and Chris Foley of Coatbridge battled it out for honours over the weekend, at the 31st Bank of Scotland Badminton Bonanza.

Both players were involved in 3 finals at sportscotland National Centre, Inverclyde, with both missing out on a clean sweep of trophies, but eventually winning 2 titles each.

In the Competitive Men's Singles Foley emerged triumphant, narrowly beating Knox 30-28 in the final. But Knox was to gain revenge later in the day in the Competitive Mixed Doubles as he and Margaret Neil (Prestwick) defeated Foley and Glasgow's Sruti Rudrappa 30-25.

And in the most closely fought final of the weekend, the two players teamed up to take the Competitive Men's Doubles title, winning 30-29 against Michael Evans (Muirend) and Martin Rourke (Clarkston).

In the ladies events, Rudrappa also narrowly missed out on a treble. She teamed up with Caroline Wengel (Houston) to take the Ladies Doubles title, but lost out on singles glory to Nicola McGuigan (Kinross).

In the Social Men's Singles, Gary Watson (Uddingston) triumphed over runner-up Samuel Pavin (Largs), while Richard Quinlog (Edinburgh) & Cheron Moore (Edinburgh) won the Social Mixed Doubles over Callum Duguid (Aberdeenshire) & Tracy Thomson (Inverurie).

The results from the finals can be seen below
