Gymnastics & Trampoline are inherently risky sports. Coaches are responsible for the welfare of approx. 20 children in the gym, many of them completely new to the sport. Due to this we must insist on good and responsible behaviour from the children. They must not go on any of the apparatus without a coach present. If the coaches feel a child is not suited to the sport for whatever reason, therefore placing themselves or others in danger, it is at our discretion as coaches to ask them to leave.
