

Education and children's services key strategies

Reference	Key strategies
A	Creative and inspiring cultural programmes which provide personal growth for all ages of learners
B	Cultural programmes should be developed to improve the health, well-being and life choices of the most vulnerable in Aberdeenshire's Communities.
C	Cultural contributions which provide employment and builds the skill base in communities, supports tourism and attracts investment
D	People will develop and retain active lifestyles
E	People will benefit from long and high quality lives - by increasing access to active lifestyles
F	Aberdeenshire and its communities will develop employment and training opportunities in roles that promote active living
G	Providing personal development experiences and opportunities which enable progression and develop skills for learning, life and work
H	Supporting the development of vibrant, sustainable communities that are stronger, more resilient, supportive, influential and inclusive.
J	Supporting communities to work together to develop and create motivated people to combat the effects of economic factors which cause deprivation and inequality