1 Introduction

Public events such as markets, fairs, processions, parades and sporting events take place regularly across Aberdeenshire each year and can play an important role in the community life of our towns and villages. The guidance given in this document aims to assist organisers of such events by providing guidance on the permissions needed and processes to be followed when holding either events on the public road or events that may impact the public road.

Where “road” is mentioned in this document it means any road or street and includes the verge, footways and footpaths as well as the carriageway.

Event organisers should discuss their plans with council Roads officers as early as possible. This should help clarify what is possible, avoid clashes with other planned works or events and ensure that sufficient time is allowed to process any necessary traffic restriction orders. The appropriate Roads officer can be contacted using our roads enquiries telephone number (03456 08 12 05) or through the email addresses given below in Table 1.1.

Motor racing events are prohibited on Scotland’s roads while specific regulations cover other motoring competitions or trials<sup>1</sup> and cycle racing<sup>2</sup>.

Small-scale events involving cycling (excluding racing), walking or running will generally not require any authorisation as competitors will be exercising their public right of passage over the road. Organisers must seek permission from the council though if they wish to erect any structures or traffic signs in the road. Any non-traffic signs must comply with Aberdeenshire Council’s policy on unauthorised signs<sup>3</sup>.

Organisers of public processions, marches or parades will also need to submit a Notice of Proposal to the council. Further information on this is available on the council’s website<sup>4</sup>.

2 Temporary traffic restrictions

Where any temporary restriction of traffic (such as road closures or waiting restrictions) are needed organisers must request that a temporary notice is served. The “Temporary Restriction of Traffic” application form<sup>5</sup> is available on the council website for this purpose.

The council may have to seek consent from the Scottish Government before serving certain notices and organisers should allow at least six weeks for requests for temporary traffic restrictions to be considered.

Aberdeenshire Council do not charge for processing applications for a temporary restrictions for sporting, social or entertainment events. We will however charge for any traffic-management design or implementation works where these are undertaken by the council. Guidance should be sought on appropriate signing of restrictions.

3 No-waiting cones

Aberdeenshire Council have a stock of no-waiting cones which may be borrowed by community groups. These may only be used to enforce no-waiting restrictions covered by a temporary traffic restriction order or notice. A small number of other signs and barriers may also be available.

Organisers should check availability with the nearest depot (see Table 3.1) and agree times for collection and return. There is no charge for borrowing these cones however cones must be signed for upon collection and a fee of £6.25 + VAT will be charged for each cone that is badly damaged or not returned.
