

Standard Conditions for Street Trader's Licence Conditions (Employee)

Glossary

The following words and expressions used throughout these conditions shall have the meaning ascribed to them:-

“Licence” the street trader’s licence to which these conditions apply

“Licence Holder” - The individual who holds the licence

“Trade” - carry out the activity of street trading as defined in section 39 of the Civic Government (Scotland) Act 1982;

“Business unit” - the kiosk, stall, vehicle, trailer or other premises from which the activity of street trading is carried out;

“Mobile business unit” - any business unit that trades at more than one location;

“Principal Street Trader’s Licence”- a licence issued by Aberdeenshire Council under section 39 of the Civic Government (Scotland) Act 1982 that allows the holder to carry out the activity of street trading from the business unit specified in the licence.

Administrative

- 1 The Licence Holder shall not carry out the activity of street trading anywhere in Aberdeenshire unless they are assisting or employed by a person who holds a principal street trader’s licence issued by Aberdeenshire Council.
- 2 The Licence Holder shall:
 - (a) At all times whilst trading wear in a conspicuous position the identification badge issued to him/her by the licensing authority.
 - (b) Exhibit his/her identification badge to any police officer, Licensing Standards Officer or customer who asks to see it. In the event of the loss of the badge or if it should be defaced or becomes illegible the Licence Holder must notify the Licensing Authority within two working days so as to obtain a new badge. The cost of replacing the badge will be met by the Licence Holder.
 - (c) Exhibit his/her licence to any police officer or Licensing Standards Officer.
 - (d) Not in any way alter, erase or deface the Licence.
- 3 The Licence cannot be transferred to any other person and the Licence Holder shall not permit any other person to use the Licence.
- 4 The Licence Holder shall notify the licensing authority if any of the information contained in the licence such as their name and/or address changes.

Health and Safety

- 5 When the Licence Holder is working in a business which offers goods or articles for human consumption the Licence Holder shall at all times comply with the requirements of the Mobile Traders Food Hygiene National Standard.

- 6 The Licence Holder shall comply with the Guidance issued by the Health and Safety Guidance for Mobile Traders issued by the Health and Safety Co-ordinating Group of the Royal Environmental Health Institute of Scotland (approved 2017). (A copy of the Guidance is available on request from the Licensing Team at Aberdeenshire Council).