

scotlandspeople Public Library Voucher Scheme

Scotlandspeople is the official site of the General Register Office for Scotland

The site contains a wide range of historical records about the people of Scotland. These records include:

- Census records from 1841 to 1911
- Old Parish Registers (births and baptisms, marriages and banns)
- Indexes of statutory birth, marriage and death records from 1855 to 2013
- Index to wills and testaments from 1513 to 1925
- Index to Coats of Arms 1672 to 1913
- Index to Valuation Rolls 1875, 1885, 1895, 1905, 1915, 1920 and 1925

Access to these records is available on a pay-per-view basis, using a credit system.

- 1 credit entitles the user to view a single page of the results of a search
- 5 credits entitle the user to view a single record

Once a search or a record has been paid for and viewed, the search or record is available to view again without charge. Viewed images can also be printed.

Start-up vouchers which enable the purchaser to open a scotlandspeople account may be purchased from all Aberdeenshire Libraries at a cost of £7 for 60 credits (standard online charge £7 for 30 credits payable by credit or debit card)

Top-up vouchers may also be purchased at a cost of £5.60 for 30 credits (standard online charge £7 for 30 credits payable by credit or debit card)

Top-up vouchers are only valid for accounts opened using the start-up vouchers. Existing account holders may purchase start-up vouchers to open a new account but should be aware that it is not possible to link accounts.

Vouchers are available for personal research only. Everybody purchasing start-up vouchers must read and sign a disclaimer (as below) agreeing to this before the purchase of a start-up voucher can be made.

Account holders with Scotlandspeople can order extracts of birth, marriage and death records from the indexed lists (£12). These must be paid for using a credit or debit card. Purchased credits are not valid for this purpose.
