Location

St Combs is a traditional fishing village with a sandy beach and grassy dunes, located 4 miles from Fraserburgh. There is a regular bus service to Fraserburgh which is well serviced by buses to other areas including Peterhead and Aberdeen.

St Combs has a bar and a post office, and it provides a primary school, whilst secondary school provision is provided in Fraserburgh. Conveniently close, Fraserburgh has a range of shops, doctors, pharmacies, dentists, a hospital, and a college of further education.

The village is surrounded by more quaint villages and beaches dotted along the picturesque coastline. Not far from St Combs outdoor enthusiasts can enjoy activities such as fishing, walking, wildlife spotting at the RSPB Loch of Strathbeg Nature Reserve, and golfing at Inverallochy's 18 hole course.
